

PUBLIC LEADER

DAILY
MAYSVILLE REPUBLICAN

ASSASSINATED.

Mayor Harrison, of Chicago,
Murdered in Cold Blood.

He Sought Rest at His Home When
the Assassin Stole Upon Him.

SECOND YEAR.

MAYSVILLE, KY., MONDAY, OCTOBER 30, 1893.

ONE CENT.

A CHICAGO IDEA.
Chicago Inter Ocean.—The mode Democratic idea is that justice is not blind, but that she wears a monocle.

GETTING SCARCER ALL OVER.

Kansas City Journal.—There are still a good many Democratic voters in Missouri, but Cleveland Democrats are becoming scarce.

THE CORONER'S VERDICT.

Minneapolis Tribune.—"Overcome by grief" should be the verdict of the Coroner's Jury in the case of the United States Senator.

WHAT IT MEANS.

Troy Times.—Machine rule, secured by theft and other defiance of law, touches the pocket as well as the conscience of the state.

GOVERNOR BOIES'S BID.

Kansas City Journal.—Governor Boies has made a shrewd bid for a United States Senatorship. He pretends that his voice has fallen him.

ANOTHER REPRESENTANT.

Washington Post.—Hon. Wayne Mac-Veach appears to be looking for an opportunity to withdraw the campaign speeches he made last year.

THE DEMOCRAT PLATFORM.

Rochester (N. Y.) Democrat and Chronicle.—High crimes and high taxes are what the Democratic party offers voters in this state as a result of its rule.

THE PEOPLE'S SONG.

Galveston News.—The people are now singing to their bombastic Senatorial di-bustlers:

Woe, so weary of waiting,
Lingering to crawl off and die.

A DISTRESS SIGNAL.

Omaha World-Register.—Chauncey M.
Depew says the Senate talks too much—and it is a pretty windy season when Chauncey M. Depew flies a signal of distress.

UNEASY.

Chicago Inter Ocean.—Governor Boies
is anxious to know "what Mr. Jackson will do" when he gets to be Governor of Iowa. Well, Boies won't have long to wait.

THE RECORD THAT HURTS.

St. Louis Globe-Democrat.—If Morgan of Alabama was not so dull he would know that it is not his Confederate record, but his record in the present crisis, which hurts him.

A SUGGESTION.

St. Louis Globe-Democrat.—The Democratic party would be in great luck if it could get the idea of indefinitely postponing a vote applied to the next Presidential election.

CAMPAIGN METHODS.

Texas Siftings.—In olden times a liar was legally punished by having a hole bored in his tongue. If this were the custom now the tongue of the Democrat stump speaker in Ohio would resemble a porous plaster.

PEPPER'S SPEECH.

Kansas City Star.—"Mr. Pepper resumed his speech." What a measure of metastability and unhappiness is contained in this announcement.
Of all words the proceedings teach,
The saddest are "Pepper resumed his speech."

SOVING THE KEYHOLE PROBLEM.

Boston Herald.—Governor Lowell of Kansas has appointed a woman to the police force of Topeka, and it is presumed that her husband will not have so much difficulty in finding the keyhole after this.

SENATOR SHERMAN'S SERVICES.

Murat Halstead.—The veteran Senator from Ohio has recently rendered the country very important service. His demand that the Democratic party should do something or get out of the way was impressive, and will be historical.

PLANNING KNOWS WHAT HE IS THERE FOR.

Reading Herald.—Alas! how are the mighty fallen. Colonel Webster Planngan of Texas, author of the immortal utterance, "What are we here for?" has been arrested for smuggling sheep across from Mexico in order to evade the tariff.

DR. PETER'S MISTAKE.

St. Louis Post-Dispatch.—"I have never seen sleeping car porters as insouciant as those who have traveled in this country," says Dr. Carl Peters. Dr. Peters does not seem to know that sleeping car porters here are men of wealth, and that the insouciance of wealth is taken as a matter of course.

Store and Postoffice Totally Destroyed Saturday Morning.

Early Saturday morning fire broke out in the store of J. M. Evans at Fern Leaf.

Besides a large stock of general merchandise the house contained the Postoffice.

There were no facilities at hand, and the fire stopped only after it had consumed everything that was burned.

The stock was insured with Duley & Baldwin for $25,000.

The building belonged to "Squire J. B. Burgess and was not insured.

The total loss will probably reach $35,000.

Mr. Evans was the Postmaster, and of course there was no insurance on the office, as Uncle Sam always takes his own risk.

Good Thing to Keep at Hand.
From The Drug (Kansas City)—Some years ago we were very much subject to the spells of cholera morbus and now when we feel any of the symptoms that usually precede that ailment, such as nausea at the stomach, diarrhea, etc., we become scarce. We have found Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy the very thing to strengthen out in such cases, and always keep it about. We are not writing this for a sensational, but to let our readers know what a good thing it is to keep handy. The bottle for sale by Powers & Reynolds.

CAUGHT AT LAST.

The Fire Fiend Who Has Caused Much Damage and Terror.

The reign of terror that has existed in Ohio opposite Springfield since the farmers is an end.

The person who has burned $30,000 worth of property within the past week is now in jail in West Union, O., he having been arrested Saturday morning while in the act of firing his father's gristery, in which were stored several thousands bushels of wheat.

Marshall Thompson of Ripley and a Cincinnati man were placed on the grounds by the insurance companies to catch the fire fiend if possible.

Saturday morning at an early hour, while Thompson was sitting on the side of a hill, he discovered Homer Kimball, the twenty-year-old son of Sam Kimball, firing the insurance gristery, and immediately arrested him.

The boy confessed as soon as arrested, but could give no reason for his deed.

He has relatives in this city who say he is slightly demented.

HELD TO THE GRAND JURY.
Mrs. Crovorn's story, based on a message from the "Red Head" to the CHURCH, was the subject of a request of the body of Mayor Harrison to send Sunday at his late residence on Ashland street.

Interest centered about the story told by Mary Hansen, the domestic who admitted Proctor. She told of her first meeting with the man, who she had been employed as a second girl.

"Early last evening," she continued, "there was a ring at the door bell. I went to see who it was, but I did not know. That was about 10 o'clock. I asked the man what he wanted, and said he wanted to see Mr. Proctor. I did not know who he was, but he was eating supper and asked him to call again. About a quarter of 8 he came back and I went to the 'door' and told him that Mr. Proctor was in the room in the second room to the front. I told him there was a man in the hall who wanted to see him, and I left him alone."

en. Just as I got in the kitchen I heard a several shots fired, and then I ran on from the kitchen to where I had left Mr. Harrison. I saw him lying on the unknown man running out of the door
Mr. Harrison staggered into the second room, and out of the door to the hall
"Do you see the man who called?" he asked Deputy Kelly.
The witness hesitated and the coroner was here to assist.
"Is that the man?" pointing to Prender dergast. Still the witness was not sure
"I don't know," he replied. "I saw an exclamation mark. I saw you later night," he volunteered.
He was told to put his hat on and "Yes," he answered, "that is the man I left standing with Mr. Harrison and that is the man who did the shooting ing.
My Hanson, the domestic, and an Cochran-Riesberg, held to the storeroom previously told and identified Prender dergast.

The prisoner encountered them at the inquest he made no attempt to deny the identification and the evidence of the witnesses. He asserted to it verbally. He maintained a stolid indifference during the hearing. Once, however, he became so excited that he broke out. He was sitting near Lient. Haas, and his attention was attracted by the presence of Mrs. W. J. Chambers. For some reason he turned toward her and he pulled the lieutenant's sleeve. The officer bent toward him and heard him ask:

"Who is 'Harrison'?"

"No," replied the lieutenant, "it is not. Why do you ask?"

"I wanted to tell her," replied Petersen, "that I was sorry for her trouble."

The jury returned a verdict, finding that the deceased "came to his death, on the 11th of July, 1918, from a blow, shock and hemorrhage caused from bullets fired from a revolver in the hands of one of the defendants."

hands of Patrick Eugene Predragast, who was called to the stand by the attorney for the defense. From the evidence presented, we, the jury, recommended that the said Patrick Eugene Predragast be held to answer for the crime charged in the indictment until discharged by the court of law."

SAMUEL POOTER of the H. & S. Pogue Company, Cincinnati, the first victim who will be tried under the new law which prohibits the employment of children under 14 years of age. He was arrested for having in his employment a boy who is but 12 years of age. The law in question was aimed at the employment of children in big factories, and not in places where the labor is light.
